

Eiteljorg Museum

beauty

NOUN: 1. A combination of qualities, such as shape, color, or form that pleases the aesthetic senses, especially the sight. (Oxford English Dictionary)

A Sense of Beauty

As a part of the museum's 30th anniversary celebration, you (and everyone else you know) are invited to create artwork inspired by the theme, Beauty. Artwork will be on display in conjunction with the exhibition, A Sense of Beauty, which opens March 9th. So get out your paints, pencils, tablets or whatever medium you choose and create some art! (Public artwork will be hung within ten days of receipt after March 9, 2019 and be on display through August 4, 2019.)

Criteria: artwork must be original and inspired by the theme Beauty
2-D only; 4" x 4" size (unframed)
a signed consent form must accompany the entry

Send your entry to:

Public Programs

Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art

500 Washington Street

Indianapolis, Indiana 46204-270

Consent Form:

I hereby grant and assign to the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art the unrestricted right to reproduce the below referenced artwork of visual art for non-commercial purposes including, but not limited to, the creation, production and distribution of the Museum's archival, educational, and promotional materials in either or both printed and electronic form.

I hereby release the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art from all claims and liability relating to the below referenced artwork. I understand that artwork will not be returned to me and becomes the property of the museum.

Name (please print) _____

Title _____ Medium _____

Signed _____ Email address _____

Signed _____ Date _____

Parent/guardian if under 18 years

* The Eiteljorg reserves the right to disqualify work that does not adhere to the criteria.